Official Presentation of the Chilean Representative at the White House in Washington—His Address and Response—An Honorable Adjustment of Present Differences Between Chile and the United States

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Senator Montt of Chile, was formally presented to the President of the United States, today, by the Secretary of State. The Minister was accompanied by Senors Anibal Cruz, Secretary of Legation, and Guellermo Arenasgata and Valentin del Campo, attaches. They were all in full evening dress in accordance with the custom in South American countries at state occasions. They first waited on Secretary of State Bryan in the State Department, and were by him escorted to the White House. The President received them standing in the Blue Parlor, which was illuminated with electric lights for the occasion. After the formal introductions by Secretary Blaine, Senator Montt advanced and addressed the President in Spanish as follows:

"Mr. President: I have the honor to present to you, with the greatest respect, the capacity of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Chile in the United States of North America. The object of the mission which the Government of Chile has assigned to me is to cultivate and maintain the relations of peace and friendship which have existed since the independence of this country, which have ever been close and cordial. For the accomplishment of this purpose I rely on the friendly cooperation of the United States Government, has always main-

"Permit me to express my country's sincere wishes for the prosperity and welfare of this noble country which is so highly favored by Providence and for your happiness."

The President responded as follows:

"MR. MINISTER—I am glad to receive from your hands the letters accrediting you as the Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to the President of the United States. The presence of a representative of the Government of Chili at this capital, I, hope, tend to promote a good understanding between the two Governments and the early settlement upon terms just and honorable to both of the diplomatic question."

ment. The Government of the United States as well as its people, particularly desire to rejoice in the prosperity of all our neighbors in this hemisphere. Our diplomatic relations with them have always been and will continue to be free from intermeddling with their internal affairs. Our people are too just to desire that the commercial or political ac-sought by the promotion of disasterous dissensions in other countries. We hear with sorrow every fresh tale of war or internal strife and are always ready to give our friendly oases to the promotion of peace. If these are not acceptable or do not avail it is our policy to preserve an honorable and strict neutrality, as was done during the recent war in Chili. Tempting commercial and political advantages may be offered to our aid or influence by one or the other of the two contending parties but this we have not deemed to be consistent with the obligation

tions of international honor and good will. This Government was quite as determined in its refusal to allow a war vessel of the United States to carry to a neutral port where it could be made available for war purposes, the silver of Balmaceda, as it was to give aid to the forces opposing him. The questions involved were Gullian questions, and the Government endeavored to observe those principles of non-intervention upon which it had so strongly insisted when civil war disturbed Chile. I cannot doubt that the same policy will commend itself to those who now administer the Government of Chili, nor can I doubt that when excitement has given place to calmness, when the truth is ascertained and the selfish and designing perversion of the facts exposed, the two Governments will find the basis of increased mutual respect, confidence and friendship.

Chili, and that its Government is the expression of the free choice of the people. You may assure your honored President, who has been chosen under circumstances which so strongly testify to his moderation and to the esteem in which he is held by the people of all parties, that the Government of the United States entertains only good will for the people of Chili, and cannot doubt that the existing and all future differences between the two governments will find an honorable adjustment. "To you, Mr. minister, I tender a personal welcome."

This closed the ceremony, and the visitors took their departure. Mr. Blaine accompanying them to their carriages.

A CHILIAN NEWSPAPER'S ACCOUNT OF THE CANAS TRAGEDY.

NEW YORK, NOV. 14.—The Times, a newspaper published in Valparaiso, Chili, prints the following details of the butchery at La Canas: A few days before the 18th of August at about 11 young men, most of them belonging to the first families in Santiago, agreed to form themselves into a body to assist the constitutional army so soon as it should arrive at Valparaiso. Aug. 17 nearly all of them met on Lo Canas estate, belonging to Don Carlos Walker-Martinez.

which is situated ten or twelve miles from Santiago, their object being to fall upon the capital and take it in case of the Dictator's troops being withdrawn, to act against the constitutional army. Unfortunately there was not wanting a wretched traitor who betrayed them to the Dictator. In possession of the information supplied by

At 2 a. m. a force consisting of seventy-five cavalry and seventy-five infantry, the latter being mounded behind the former, left Santia go quietly for Lo Canas. At daybreak the house and buildings on the estate were surrounded, and the band of gallant youths were rudely awakened by discharges of rifles and carbines. The truth immediately flashed upon them that they had been betrayed, and that they were surrounded by a relentless soldiery.

The first to leave was Don Arturo Undurraga Vicuna, accompanied by twelve or more of his companions, and their lives were saved through the instrumentality of a roll of notes offered to and accepted by the soldiers among whom they passed.

the good fortune to run. Others of their companions were less fortunate. As they rushed out of the buildings they, too, found themselves confronted by soldiers, and a voice rang out clear above the din to give the unfortunate youths no quarter. The order was given by an aide of Gen. Barbosa, named Alex Jo San Martin. At the first din of the shot of the young patriots falling

The remainder attempted to cut their way out. Fifteen or more were shot dead, five or six were wounded and ten or twelve were made prisoners. The wounded were bayoneted and sabred to death, and their bodies were mutilated and burned.

IN TOTAL ECLIPSE

The Moon Will Be in Gloom To-Morrow Night.

THE ECLIPSE VISIBLE THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES.

Photographic Views of Fair Luna's Topography Will Be Taken—Valuable Information to Be Secured if the Elements Are Favorable—Certainty With Which These Events Can Be Foretold.

That rare occurrence—a total eclipse of the moon—will occur to-morrow night, and should the weather be propitious much interesting data will be secured by astronomers. The last total eclipse of the moon occurred in 1874 and none will take place after to-morrow night until 1920, 19 years hence. Eclipses of Earth and Moon in Space. The sun occur much more frequently than eclipses of the moon, owing to readily explainable causes, although the points where eclipses of the sun may be observed are vastly more circumscribed than those from which the observation of the moon may be noted. An eclipse of the moon is observable over one-half the surface of the globe. The shadow cast by the earth is in the shape of a cone, owing to the vastly greater proportions of the solar body, the base of the cone resting upon the earth. Hence, were the moon far enough away in space, she would not pass through the shadow and no eclipse would take place. It is entirely a question of angles. It is only within recent years that eclipses of the moon have been observed photographically. The present eclipse may be observed from all parts of the United States on this side of the Passing Through the Earth's Shadow. globe being the part that is turned toward the moon. In the Pacific states the eclipse will commence before sunset, while in the Atlantic Coast the moon will have well risen before passing into the shadow of the earth. The moon will be larger and fuller than at almost any other time in the year. The eclipse will be noticeable to the naked eye. The shadow of the earth will be seen through powerful glasses, but will hardly be noticeable to the naked eye. The shadow of the earth will be seen through powerful glasses, but will hardly be noticeable to the naked eye. The shadow of the earth will be seen through powerful glasses, but will hardly be noticeable to the naked eye.

Telescopic View of the Moon. silver moon will disappear. A London smoke-colored disk will be observable, for sufficient reflected light from the earth's surface will remain in space to fully illuminate the eclipsed satellite. While a moon passing into the shadow of the earth cannot be observed by the naked eye, the bright portion obscuring the duller part. When the entire disk has passed into the shadow it becomes distinctly visible, showing gradations of color from blue green to gradually increasing red.

WILL BE PHOTOGRAPHED. Should the weather permit astronomers will photograph the topography of the orb, its valleys and its mountains being strongly marked. Eclipses of the moon have been correctly figured by astronomers for ages. Columbus, when shipwrecked on the island of Jamaica on March 1, 1504, without provisions and refused food by the Indians, predicted an eclipse, saying that the gods were displeased with him and would for a time hide his face. The Indians scoffed at Columbus, but when night came and the eclipse occurred, their superstitions conquered them and they became the friends and allies of the navigator.

At the St. Louis University, where a great deal of attention is paid to astronomical study, it was stated that the eclipse of the moon would be observable here provided the weather permitted. The present indications are unfavorable. Should the elements be clear enough the telescope will be brought into requisition and a series of observations noted. Signal Service Officer Hammon stated yesterday that the weather prognostications pointed to rain during the entire day to-day, and that in any event it is extremely doubtful that any vision will be able to pierce the smoke-laden atmosphere now impending over the city.

PENSION IRREGULARITIES. An Agent and Justice Fined by Judge Thayer—Other Decisions.

Proceedings in the United States District Court before Judge Thayer this morning will interest pension agents. Mr. Lorenzo D. Immel of Union, Franklin County, was before the court on his plea of guilty to three indictments for violation of the pension laws. Immel's offense was in certifying certain affidavits as having been made before a Justice of the Peace when, in fact, the party never so appeared. It seems that he had the affidavits written out and subscribed by the Justice, who knew all the parties and all the facts, and who said, so it is claimed in Immel's behalf, that he had the right to certify to them, although the parties were not present. It is said that Immel expressed some doubt as to the Justice's right to do this, but the Justice was clear that he had and Immel acquiesced in this view and forwarded the papers to the department, with his certificate that the parties actually came before the Justice and swore to the facts stated in the affidavits.

Mr. Immel made a strong plea in behalf of mercy for Immel. He admitted that there was a technical violation of the law, but insisted that there was no criminal intent. He devoted himself largely to Immel's record as a soldier and offered to submit to the court letters from Union, Kansas, and Schenck and such local military celebrities as Col. Cole and Rodgers very highly extolling his standing as a soldier. He was in the battle of Wilson's Creek, and his personal bravery was there recognized. This Congress voted him a medal of honor as one of the "Bravest Five Hundred." Mr. Immel also offered testimonials to Immel's good character to be inferred from signatures to petitions for his appointment as Postmaster not long since. If Judge Thayer was impressed by this array of "good character" he did not say so. He fined Immel $100 in the three cases, which were bunched, remarking that it was a very serious thing for a pension agent to testify that parties had appeared before a magistrate, when, as a matter of absolute fact, they had not so appeared.

THE VALENTINE CASE. The court delivered an oral opinion in the case of Miss Julia Guntion, tried yesterday for addressing objectionable mail matter. There was, he said, a violation of the law, but he attributed it to ignorance of the accused, and he found her not guilty. This is the case in which objectionable addresses were put on valentines sent to Ironton (Mo.) young ladies.

THE COUNTERFEITERS SENTENCED. Sentence in the Walker counterfeit case was pronounced as follows: John C. Walker, $5 and costs and two years in the Penitentiary from July 1 last; George R. Walker, $5 and costs and one year in the Penitentiary from date; Johnson Limbaugh, $5 and costs and one year in Missouri Penitentiary from date; Jacob Long, $5 and costs and six months in Missouri Penitentiary from date; John C. Walker was first given twenty-four months, but Mr. Bashaw, pleaded for a reduction to twenty-two, so that the old man could get out to be of some use in spring work on the farm.

DISCHARGED. Herman Bihman, Edward Bahlan, Chas. Marshall, Louis Ruston and Herman Ramm were discharged from their recognizances the grand jury having failed to return indictments.

HE NEEDS A WIFE. A Man Who Must Have One in His Business.

Judge Kane received a letter from Paul Wilkins of Calumet, Pa., this morning, who told of a marriage failure that was short and decisive. The Judge united in marriage, on Oct. 8, last, Paul Wilkins of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Jennie Jarvis of this city. Wilkins took his bride to the Blue Ridge region of Pennsylvania, but she pined for her home in Louisville, it seems. Judge Kane said she left him. The Judge looked at the record and found the entry as stated and he heaved a sigh of regret. Below is a copy of the letter, which is very business-like, although not a classic composition:

CALUMET, Pa., Nov. 12. Mr. Judge Kane, dear sir, that job you done for me on the 8 day of Oct. last has proved a failure already. She has deserted me and I think gone back to St. Louis and I know no other reason makes sense than that she was a woman. Now I ask you the question as an officer of the law what I am to do. I am left here a terrible ball shape and if she will not live with me in Pennsylvania she will not else where as I have good home here and am doing well. She is a good woman and suits me. Mrs. Browner's Sad Flight. Mrs. Browner, living at 222 West Popple street, with her aged mother and four small children ranging in ages from 2 days to 11 years, are in very destitute circumstances. Mrs. Browner has been making a living for herself and family by washing until two weeks ago, when she became sick and on last Wednesday gave birth to a child, and she is now in a debilitated condition, as she has no money to get medicine with and is living without fuel or food, except what her neighbors furnish her, and they are almost as poor as herself. Mrs. Browner's husband, Frank, a molder by trade, left his family two months ago, and since that time she has not heard from him. Before he left his family he mortgaged the entire household, leaving her penniless and dependent entirely upon her charitable disposed neighbors.

Thrown from a Wagon. At 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, while Mrs. Mary Scott and her two children, living at 926 Columbia Bottom road, were returning from the market after selling a wagon load of vegetables, and when near the Washab Bridge at Broadway and Antelope, the horse became frightened and a passing train and ran away, upsetting the wagon and throwing the occupants to the ground. They were all badly bruised, but not seriously injured. They were removed to their home by some friends who happened to be passing at the time.

Worthy of Assistance. Officer Winkel of the Sixth District reports a very sad case of destitution. Mrs. John Foley and two small children are living at 610 Schiller avenue in a sick and destitute condition. Her husband left her on the 17th of October and has not been seen since. The police report that it is worthy of any assistance given her.
